The On Track Commitment

In applying for a placement with Interserve's On Track programme, I agree, if accepted, to participate on the basis of the On Track Commitment, which I have read.

I understand that information contained in this application will be confidential to officers of Interserve (including those in countries other than England and Wales) and to members of the Personnel Committee. I agree that Interserve may pass relevant personnel records to relevant officers of the Fellowship, whichever country they may be based in.

Such information will be shared only with those people within these groups who need to know the information in order to make informed decisions about my application and, if relevant, placement by Interserve. I understand that once information is passed to overseas officers of the Fellowship, I may no longer have rights under UK data protection law, however in all cases my records will be handled in accordance with Interserve's code of good practice in data protection and confidentiality.
